“ Dear Betty Jane and Family: Please accept our sincere condolences regarding the death of your loved one. My husband Earl and I would have been in attendance at the funeral service but we have both been confined at home with respiratory infections.

Our lives have not intertwined over the years but we have not forgotten our family ties. Bill's father's sister, Julia Nygren Hedenberg, was my grandmother; Bill and my mother, Ruth Bagley Londin, were first cousins. Time passes so swiftly and so many opportunities are lost.

May God ease the pain of sorrow and bring healing and peace as only He can.

“ Hello Nygren Family,
I was saddened by the news of Uncle Bill's passing. My mother Caroline Guenther, Francis Larson's Daughter called me this morning to let me know.
She said you were all with him when he passed. Let that be a comfort to you.

I am saddened that I really don't remember much about Uncle Bill. What I do remember is that he was always so nice to me when we got together at Aunt Hilda's house.

I am sorry for your loss. He is in God's hands now. May that comfort you too.
