

Wilmore "Bill" Orcutt

August 27, 1915 - October 29, 2011

Wilmore "Bill" Orcutt, 96, of Southington, passed away peacefully Saturday October 29, 2011 at Danbury Hospital after a short illness. He was predeceased by his first wife of 51 years, Selma "Sally" VanOudenhove Orcutt, and his second wife of 11 years, Mildred Hebert Orcutt. Born in New Britain, he attended Hartford and New Britain schools and lived in Southington for more than 30 years. Bill was an Electrical Engineer for Amtrak for over 40 years, retiring in 1980. He was a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Engineers. He loved to play the organ and was a member of the local organ club.

Surviving is his loving niece and her husband, Sharon and James Quish, Sr. of Danbury; two step sons, Roy Hebert of Greece, NY and Noel Hebert of Bradenton, FL; several other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Besides his two wives, he was predeceased by a brother Ralph Orcutt. Bill's family expresses sincere thanks to Interim Health Care, especially to Elaine Nasley, RN and Jeannette Sterniak, CNA for their dedicated service and love which allowed him to stay in his home.

A Memorial Service will be held Tuesday November 15, 2011 1 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Burial will follow in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Hartford. There are no calling hours. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 2075 Silas Deane Highway, Suite 100, Rocky Hill, CT 06067. Please share a memory or note of sympathy by clicking on "Add Condolences" at the bottom of this page.

“ Bill was a good man and he will be missed. He would always have a good story about his railroad days and he was pretty savvy with the computer. My grandmother Mildred always had fun with Bill. May he rest in peace, from Rowan, Cheryl and Jon Hebert
